

Professor Zobeida Bonilla Joins the Gender Policy Report

The Gender Policy Report is pleased to welcome Professor Zobeida Bonilla as a new curator to our health page. A medical anthropologist and public health practitioner, Zobeida Bonilla brings expertise to the Gender Policy Report on issues of maternal child health, global health and the health of the Latino community in the United States and the Spanish-speaking Caribbean. In addition to her role as Assistant Professor in the Division of Epidemiology and Community Health at the School of Public Health at the University of Minnesota, Bonilla has over 15 years of practice experience in public health working with state and local departments of health and in the non-profit sector working with the women's health group Our Bodies Ourselves. Bonilla looks forward to creating conversation among practitioners, activists and researchers in the Gender Policy Report.